10 PLANNING

To note the following planning application received during August and returned with the attached observations using delegated powers

PA15/06339 Mr S Neal – Demolition of existing dwelling and construction of replacement dwelling – Norbury, Tresowes. . This application was returned marked Germoe Parish Council has considered the application to demolish the existing cottage and build a new house on this site and whilst the Council has no observations on this application, it does consider that the site as such is only suitable for one dwelling. In the event of planning permission being granted, the Parish Council would requests that that permission is subject to an agreement that only one dwelling is erected on the total site of this application.
